

Name Gorm Greisen, born 1951

Current workplace: Rigshospitalet, Department of Neonatology

Education

1982 – 1989 Dr.Med.Sc. Faculty of Health Sciences, University of Copenhagen
1977 – 1978 Diploma of tropical medicine, Institute 'Prince Leopold', Antwerpen
1969 – 1976 Cand. Med. Faculty of Health Sciences, University of Copenhagen
1971 - 1974 B.Sc. (computer science) University of Copenhagen

Employments

2009 - Deputy head of the Institute of gynecology, obstetrics and paediatrics, University of Copenhagen.
2001 - 2012 Head of Department, Neonatology, Rigshospitalet
1998 – Professor of Paediatrics University of Copenhagen
1991 - Consultant neonatologist, Rigshospitalet

Research profile and leadership experience

Heading research in neonatal brain perfusion, oxygenation, brain injury, and neurodevelopmental deficits and perinatal growth. Primary investigator in the SafeBoosC project. Steering committee member in four European research and educational projects. President for the European Society of Paediatric research and for the International Pediatric Research Foundation. Chairman of a regional research ethics committee.

Honours

2008 The National Research Ethics Committee award
2007 William Ottesen travel award
1994 Danin Foundation award

Other scientific qualifications

Invited speaker at more than 100 international meetings. Organiser of the European society of Paediatric Research conference 1999, chairman of the scientific committee 2013.

Publications

- Total publications in peer-reviewed journals: More than 150
- H-index: 35
- Patents: none